

Dan R. Barrow Memorial Scholarship American Massage Therapy Association New Mexico Chapter

Background

The American Massage Therapy Association New Mexico Chapter (AMTA-NM) is offering a scholarship for continuing education. This scholarship is being offered to one AMTA-NM member on an annual basis. This scholarship has been established to honor longtime AMTA-NM member and past president, Dan R. Barrow. We'd like to recognize Dan's service to this organization - serving on the board of directors for many years and being an tireless volunteer. Dan has elevated and enhanced our profession in New Mexico and on a national level, also serving as a National AMTA volunteer for many years. He was a renowned neuromuscular therapist and instructor and served on the NM Massage Therapy licensing board.

Terms of the Scholarship

Compliance - this scholarship program is being established and operated within the boundaries of state and federal laws, including Internal Revenue Service regulations.

Scholarship Value - the annual value of this fund will be $250 at a minimum, with a maximum value of $750. The annual value will be determined by the AMTA-NM board of directors based on each fiscal year's budget.

Eligibility Criteria - the awardee must be an AMTA professional member in good standing and a licensed massage therapist in the State of New Mexico. Current members of the scholarship committee and board of directors are not eligible.

Award Period - winners may not re-apply for this scholarship for a 5 year period.

Duration of Fund - this scholarship is a one-time gift.

Criteria for Award - The winner will be selected by the scholarship committee based on a completed application which shall include willingness to take their practice to the new level, and extent of community involvement and volunteerism. The AMTA-NM board of directors will vote to approve the selection made by the committee.
